Malfunktion

RELEASE DATE: AUGUST 21, 2015

Mal Magorel is a Winnipeg-based singer/songwriter whose jazz, funk and soul-infused vocals can be heard in all corners of her hometown, from the seediest nightclubs to the classiest corporate events. The powerhouse performer has worked with many of Winnipeg's finest musicians (including Ron Paley, Danny Kramer, Jonathan Alexiuk, Christopher Berti, Ariel Posen and Helen White), and has established her place as a cornerstone of the local music scene.

Malfunktion – a project three years in the making – blends a lifetime of musical influences into a style all Mal's own, with an eclectic mix of pop and soul spanning from Motown-esque to the sly, smooth sounds of early 90s pop/R+B.

Ten original songs showcase Mal's passion and fiery attitude, ripping subject matter from the pages of her diary to bring music fans stories of love, heartbreak, connection, perseverance, sadness and determination.

Malfunktion is the manifestation of a 32-year love affair between a woman and the magic music can bring to life.
